

SMALL GROUP TRAINING SERIES

SEPTEMBER: VERTIMAX TRAINING

This unique training, led by fitness trainer Jeff Small, is conducted with a group of four athletes at a time. The training offers a combination of on-platform and off-platform fundamentals required in most sports. It also uses the Vertimax Platform to offer high level conditioning for elite performance gains targeting the vertical jump, acceleration, top-end speed and sport-specific movement using band resistance and form training. This training is excellent for all athletes and also those recovering from injury.
